

Rami Shoula

Journalist

Profile

Passionate and dynamic Journalist committed to bringing honest and powerful news to the public. Adept in rigorously investigating events and stories to deliver the most accurate and engaging content possible.

Employment History

Journalist at Empire Media, New York

February 2017 — July 2021

- Developed interesting, relevant, and authentic feature articles and editorial pieces.
- Evaluated events and followed up on news leads to deliver the most important stories possible.
- Remained up-to-date about events, public opinion, and social media occurrences to ensure the delivery of the most engaging journalism.
- Effectively communicated with other writers and staff members.

Reporter at Williamson News, New York

September 2014 — January 2017

- Researched and analyzed potential news stories.
- Tracked developing stories drawing interest online.
- Collaborated with staff writers to plan and develop news stories and segments.
- Covered a range of video content including breaking news headlines and features.
- Remained focused on delivering the timely news our readers needed.

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Communications, Fordham University, New York

September 2009 — May 2013

High School Diploma, St. Catherine's Academy, New York

September 2005 — May 2009

Internships

Journalism Internship at Out Loud New York

Details

romioshoula@gmail.com

Skills

Journalism

Investigative Reporting

Research and Analysis

Advanced Communication Skills

Ability to Multitask

Creative Thinking Skills

Languages

Arabic

English